

Downtown Treasure Hunt

Begin the celebration at 9 a.m. and explore all that downtown Brockton has to offer! Children will enjoy games, crafts, historical facts & a visit with Santa.

- 1 Brockton Public Library
Crafts, color & fun.
- 2 Main Street Furniture
Treasure Hunt.
- 3 Tree of Life Quality Foods
Treasure Hunt & Fresh fruit & beverage.
- 4 Lisa's Sweet Tooth
Treasure Hunt & Peppole Day menu.
- 5 Joe Angelo's Cafe
Treasure Hunt & Peppole Day menu.
- 6 Shone's Master Barbering
Treasure Hunt & holiday haircuts.
- 7 Peruvian Place
Treasure Hunt & Peppole Day menu.
- 8 City Hall
Learn the history of City Hall, check out the Holiday Bazaar and eat, drink & be merry.
- 9 Hoogie's Hobbies & "Christmas Town"
See what downtown businesses have to offer - a great toy store and a window display that will transport you to the North Pole!
- 10 First Department Store Santa or Independence Associates/ Tuxedos By Merian
Watch downtown Brockton wad, & and will be: John Merian explains the life and legacy of James Edgar, America's first department store Santa. Pictures with Santa (9:30 a.m. to noon) and a preview of Christmas Town 2015.
- 11 Adams Garage
Vintage Sticker
Federal Building

Key

Parade Start/End

Food

Restrooms

Parade Route

JAMES EDGAR
1890

Please look for the above picture of the numbered locations on the left to participate in the Treasure Hunt! Once you have collected all 11 stamps, stop by Tuxedos by Merian to receive your treasure box.